MDL DOCKET No. 1532

ORDER ON DEFENDANTS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF DEADLINE

The Defendants' Unopposed Motion for Enlargement of Deadline to Answer or Otherwise Respond to the Second Amended Complaint is GRANTED, but with this notice to counsel. I do not expect this delay to play any part in the schedule for discovery. There has already been extensive delay in discovery occasioned by the motion practice on the First Amended Complaint and resulting decision time.

Several state courts are holding their cases in abeyance pending resolution of the multi-district proceedings. It is essential that the proceedings here move forward now with alacrity.

In light of one of the new counts of the Second Amended Complaint and the reference to it in the motion for enlargement, I also disclose that I am one of the Advisers on the current American Law Institute project to prepare a Restatement (Third) of Restitution and Unjust Enrichment.

SO ORDERED.

DATED THIS 6TH OF MAY, 2004
